

Sanlúcar de Barrameda (Cádiz) and Doñana national Park, Spain

Duplex flat for veggies in Andalusia, Spain

Renovated, cosy two level holiday flat for up to five people (exclusively for veggies), located in Sanlúcar de Barrameda (Cádiz), the gateway to Doñana, one of the most emblematic national parks in Europe.

See stunning wildlife, vegetation and landscapes just a short boat ride away across the Guadalquivir river (the only navigable river in Spain), enjoy a half day boat pleasure trip into the Doñana Park with guided stopovers, or experience the golden beaches.

The flat, part of a typical old house with a courtyard, is located a couple of minutes away from the fruit and vegetable market, the pedestrian and main shopping area at the town centre, and the historical XV century Castillo de Santiago (St. James' Castle).

The flat consists of two floors:

Downstairs: A room with a double bed; living room / dining room; newly fitted kitchen; bathroom with bathtub and shower; a small patio.

Upstairs: A washing machine and an electric water heater are located on the landing; a single bedroom; living room / dining room with a separate area and two bunk beds; a small toilet; large private terrace with a covered room for relaxation.

Home and kitchen appliances provided: Refrigerator, vitro ceramic cooker, washing machine, television, bedlinen, towels and kitchen utensils.

Weekly rates until October 2010:

400 Euros, all inclusive, with 10% discount for single or double occupancy.

Off season:

250 Euros/ week, all inclusive, with 10% discount for single or double occupancy.

For booking dates, further info and other rates for different lengths of stay, please write or contact Francisco:

fmartinave@gmail.com / Tel.: 0034 660893007